They meet on Wed at 6:30pm and the meetings last until 8 or 8:30pm. The NA groups only come in twice a month so the inmates really appreciate having weekly AA meetings. Both the men and women really appreciate all of the AA literature that the district and others have donated. So thank you to everyone who's participated directly and indirectly through you meeting donations to the groups that do donate to the district. Inmates can have one on one visitors from the AA community.

Men's Corrections - Brandon H reported the men's meeting is going well with one new volunteer helping run the meetings. Brandon has a new phone # so if any men are interesting in getting involved with the men's corrections meetings contact him at 608-371-4476.

Still going to Crossroads on the 3rd Thursday of the month. Crowd last time was very responsive. I plan to continue doing this. We still need a volunteer for the night hours which is 6:00PM to 9:00PM on that 3rd Thurs as well. The night meeting can wrap up at break at 7:30pm. Lori Blank mentioned that the groups are small. You can contact Lori also if you're interested and she can answer all your questions.

Literature/Grapevine - Joel belated report - Grapevine communicates the experience, strength, and hope of its contributors and reflects a broad geographic spectrum of current A.A. experience. Throughout its history the magazine has been a forum for the varied and often divergent opinions of A.A.s around the world. You can submit a story, caption for the monthly cartoon and vote on the future captions as well at aagrapevine.org. You can download and try the Grapevine and LaVina apps for free from the Apple App Store and the Google Play Store. This month's special section is "How the Steps Changed My Life". To celebrate our new book, Our Twelve Steps, a brand-new collection of Step stories, AA members share their favorite experiences about how the Twelve Steps have helped change their lives. Each year, Grapevine holds a competition for photographers to be featured in our Wall Calendar. We'd love to see your most striking photographs that reflect the joy of living, serenity, and other sobriety themes. Entries for the 2025 Wall Calendar must be received by Dec 1, 2024. Contributors of selected photos will receive a complimentary copy of the new Wall Calendar in which their photo appears and a Grapevine Pocket Planner.

Audio and visual media help to carry A.A.'s message of recovery. Public service announcements (PSAs) are available for the public and professionals. We can provide PSAs in a variety of formats as needed for TV and radio broadcasts. Find other media here to reach young people, professionals working with alcoholics, and others.

<https://www.aa.org/resources/media> AA has three newsletters for you to explore that are intended for various audiences. Box 4-5-9, About AA (for professionals) and Sharing from Behind the Walls. You can order and view AA literature, pamphlets and guidelines directly from AA at onlineliterature.aa.org. AAWS encourages ordering of literature and other items via your local groups, Intergroups and Central Offices.
